The Simmons Monument

In the April number of this Quarterly, pages 136-143 and 178, references were made to the work of the Pioneer and Historical Society of Thurston County in preparing a monument to the memory of Colonel Michael Troutman Simmons and the pioneers who founded at Tumwater in 1845 the first American settlement on Puget Sound. The heavy snows of winter had prevented a completion of the monument in time for the meeting on March 2, but an ample and successful programme was provided for the meeting on July 12, as follows: Song, "Star Spangled Banner;" Invocation, by Hon. P. D. Moore; Address of Welcome, by General Hazard Stevens, President of the Society; Response, by Judge Overton G. Ellis, of the Sons of the American Revolution; Response, by George H. Himes, Secretary of the Oregon Pioneer Society; Basket Dinner in the adjacent park; Address at the Monument, Governor Ernest Lister; First American Settlers, by Professor Edmond S. Meany, President of the Pioneer Association of the State of Washington; Address, by P. M. Troy, Chairman of the Monument Committee; Address, by W. P. Bonney, Secretary of the Washington State Historical Society (which gave the beautiful bronze tablet on the monument); Address, by Mayor C. S. Lee of Tumwater; Unveiling of the Monument, by Mrs. Bertha Simmons Fairson, Miss Mary Bush and Christopher C. Simmons.

The cost of the monument was defrayed by the heirs of the late Leopold F. Schmidt.

To Honor an Indian

Hon. Wesley L. Jones has introduced a bill in the United States Senate to aid in the erection of a monument to Indian Timothy at his grave near Alpowa, Asotin County, Washington. The bill proposes to appropriate $25,000 to the Garfield County Pioneer Association to be expended under certain stipulations. The reasons are given as follows: "To commemorate the services rendered by Indian Timothy in the rescue of the United States troops under Colonel Steptoe in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-eight and his assistance at various times to the white settlers of the Northwest as well as his valuable services to the cause of civilization and Christianity."
